Advantages

Unique savoir-faire

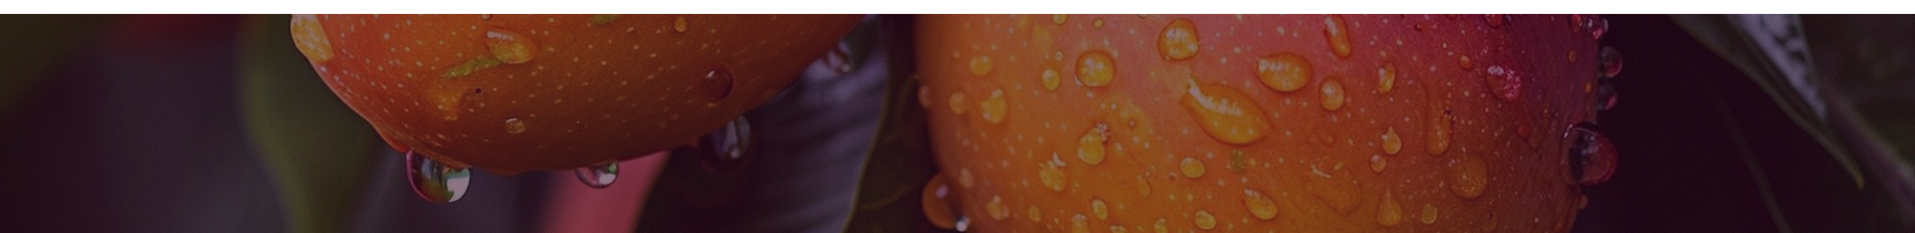

Fruits are processed in Valence, France's Drôme region, where Alain carefully sources raw ingredients, prioritizing sustainable, organic, or zero-waste agriculture. His refined palate selects orchards, varieties, and the ideal ripeness to capture each fruit's full nuance in the juice.

Singular aromatic profile

Fruits are selected and processed always with the same goal to authentically and accurately reproduce their essence, through their colours, textures and aromas. Signature flavours such as Cox apple, as well as a collection of grape varieties including Sauvignon, Merlot and Cabernet, and a beautiful collection of colourful tomatoes, with Green Zebra and Black Crimea.

Local and global commitments

Half of the fruits come from local producers near the production workshops, located in the heart of France's main fruit-growing region. Juices and pulps are extracted and frozen on-site, supporting the local economy. The production equipment is designed to minimize energy consumption, and bottles are made from 70% recycled glass. Water and fruit waste are also reused as part of an eco-friendly approach.
